College to Present "Arsenic and Old Lace"

The Gang Is Here-Including the Brewster Sisters

The cast of the comedy "Arsenic and Old Lace" as they appear in the picture are, lying on the floor, left to right, Jim Maxson, Henry Beuermann; seated, left to right, James Warner, Jerry Cooley, Walter Arms, Rolande Thompson, Charles Hagee, Virginia Birbeck; standing, left to right, Bill Schultz, Dan Hochstein, Earl Gebhardt, Bob Wilson, R. D. Burns, and Don Bagley. Reid Anderson, also a member of the cast, is not shown.

Work is progressing on "Arsenic and Old Lace," the comedy that will be presented by the speech and drama department, November 22 and 23.

Lines, accents, and movements are coming along well. The timing needs attention, but in the three remaining weeks this factor will be perfected.

Students are cast in the play as follows: Geraldine Cooley as Abby Brewster; Rolande Thompson, Martha Brewster; Reid Anderson, Rev. Dr. Harper; Charles Hagee, Teddy Brewster; Don Bagley, Officer Klein; Virginia Birbeck, Elaine Harper; James Warner, Mortimer Brewster; Walter Arms, Mr. Gibbs.

Bob Wilson, Jonathan Brewster; Earl Gebhardt, Dr. Elmsstein; Elbert Blair, Officer O'Hara; Dan Hochstein, Lieutenant Rooney; Bill Schultz, Mr. Witherspoon; Edward Maxon, Mr. Hoskins; and Merton Beuerman, Mr. Spinalze.

Members of the stagecraft class have as their assignment the settings for this play. Members of this class are Bob Lister, Caroline Kay Trotter, John Lee Thompson, Walt Hopkins, and Elbert Blair. Miles Stucker is the stage manager.

Student actors are taking care of their own make-up, personal properties, and some of their own costumes.

The play is under the direction of Mr. Ralph E. Fulsom, chairman of the department.

Teddy, played by Charles Hagee, believes himself to be Teddy Roosevelt and will "charge" through out the performance. Jonathan, played by Bob Wilson, is the black sheep.

Important

To avoid a shortage of 1955 TOWERS which will be issued next May, the college is introducing a new policy to be followed by the students of the college.

All students who are enrolled in college during the first semester of this school year will register for a 1955 TOWER on Monday and Tuesday, November 8 and 9, in the Bearcat den of the first floor of the administration building and make a payment on the Tower as indicated below.

A student who holds a student activity ticket for the Summer, 1954, and one for each semester of 1954-55 is credited with $3.00, the cost of the TOWER to the student. The credit allowed follows:

1. Summer session activity ticket, 1954, .60.
2. First semester activity ticket, 1954-55, $1.20.
3. Second semester activity ticket, 1954-55, $1.20.

As stated above students attending college during the summer of 1954 and the two semesters of the 1954-55 school year will receive a TOWER free. The remainder of the students will be expected to pay the balance due on their TOWER on the days of registration.

Those students attending only the first and second semesters of the 1954-55 school year will be charged $6.00 for a Tower.

Students attending only the first or second semester of the 1954-55 school year will be charged $1.80.

1954 summer students attending only the summer session will be charged $2.40.

When the TOWERS are issued in May they will be distributed first to those people who have pre-registered for a TOWER.

Your cooperation in this matter will enable the TOWER staff to give you a better book.

Education Week To Be Highlighted By Hans K. Maeder

The American Education Week assembly on November 13 will feature Mr. Hans Karl Maeder, a well known educator.

Mr. Maeder was raised in Hamburg, Germany. He studied at the University of Hamburg, and after the advent of Nazism to power in 1933, he went to Denmark for a number of years where he taught and worked at schools for adolescent boys.

Hans K. Maeder

From Denmark, his path took him for studies to Switzerland after which he went into the interior of Kenya Colony, East Africa, where he taught reading and writing to native children who had never before seen written work. After leaving Africa, he went by way of Indonesia, Singapore, and Hongkong to Manila where he was a teacher and news commentator for more than two years.

Just before coming to the United States, Mr. Maeder was connected with the University of Hawaii. In 1943, he came to New York City, where he taught and soon became the director of Walden, one of the oldest and largest progressive schools in this country.

Hans Maeder has written on education and is the author of boys' book, SVEN AND HIS FRIENDS. He feels the best medium to reach the public is through personal contact with an audience. Here he can give answer to vital questions, and here he is able to inspire to further thought. His topics center around youth and education.

Debaters to Go To Kansas State

A debate tournament will be held at Kansas State College, Manhattan, November 6. It will be the first intercollegiate debate event of the 1954-55 season as far as Maryville is concerned.

The College will be represented by Warren Bennett, freshman; Donald Miller, freshman; Henry Southard, sophomore; Ronald Maurice, sophomore; Elbert Blair, junior.

Qualification Tests Will Be Given Soon

Admission tickets to the three hour long selective service college qualifying test will be available soon at the Nodaway County Selective Service Office. Students interested in this test should watch the bulletin board for further announcement.

The first of these two tests, one this year and one next, by which draft age college students attempt to prove they are capable of remaining in school rather than being drafted, will be given December 9.

The selective service forms that Mrs. Mock will give the students are to be completed and mailed by the student to the education center of the Central Selective Service Office. An examination will be forwarded by the office to the College.

The second of these qualifying tests will be given April 21, 1955.

Sigma Taus and Tri Sigmas Tie for Homecoming Trophies

The 1954 Homecoming supremacy cup was presented last Friday to the Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity and the Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority at Northwest Missouri State College at a regular weekly assembly. The presentations were made by Dr. John L. Harr, chairman of the Homecoming committee, and Earl Bridgewater, student chairman of the committee.

The cup is awarded on the basis of all-around participation in Homecoming events by organizations.

John Russell, president of the Sigma Tau Gamma, and Miss Bonnie Henderson, president of the Tri Sigs, accepted the cup. The cup will be in possession of the Sig Taus until March, at which time it will be given to the sorority for the remainder of the year.

During 1950, 1951, and 1952, the cup was won by the Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority, which gave them permanent possession of a cup. Last year the Alpha Sigs and the Independent club tied for the cup.

Wilson Fellowships To Be In by Nov. 15

November 15, 1954, is the dead line set for the nominations of candidates for the Woodrow Wilson Fellowship Program. Any member of the academic profession may nominate candidates for consideration as Woodrow Wilson Fellows. The discovery and approval of suitable candidates rest upon the exercise of initiative and judgment of faculty members. Those interested should consult Dr. W. A. Brandenburg, Dean of the College Faculty.

The National Woodrow Wilson Fellowship Program is designed to recruit for the teaching profession, at the college or university level, young men and women who possess the highest qualities of intellect, character, and personality.

Mary Hutchinson Will Be Featured

"I just grew up in the theatre," maintains Mary Hutchinson. This young actress enchants her audience as she sings, acts, and dances in a presentation of the one-woman theatre at its best. Mary Hutchinson will present the play Friday, November 5, at 10 a. m.

After studying for a time at Barnard College, with an eye to becoming a Latin teacher, Mary auditioned as a dancer for Earl Carroll's "Vanities." She got the job and bade farewell to a teaching career.

She has been seen on the stage several times with Charles Coburn.

She was also in "Lady Be Good" with Fred and Adele Astaire.

Mary Hutchinson has been touring the country with acclaim from audiences and critics from coast to coast.

TOWER CHOIR PERFORMS

The Tower A Capella Choir consisting of seventy-five voices sang "The Creation" by Richter, and "Thank We All Our God" by Cruger, arranged by Mueller, at the Methodist church Sunday.

A Winning Foursome . . .

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

by Dick Bibler

"On the other hand it's good to have a student like Worthal, in class . . . It completes th' other end of th' curve."

In Appreciation

The fine spirit, cooperation, and labors of hundreds of students, faculty members, office employees, and campus workmen displayed in the production of the 1954 Homecoming should not remain unrecognized and unmentioned. The quality of the fruits of your labors was such that favorable reflections were cast upon you as individuals, upon your organizations, and upon the College.

We desire to take this means of expressing our appreciation in behalf of the College for your wonderful response which made this past Homecoming the best yet. You have staged an affair which will be difficult for your successors even to equal. Thanks to all of you who helped.

J. W. Jones, President
John L. Harr, Faculty Chairman
Earl Bridgewater, Student Chairman

They're Talking About . . .

And they're still talking about Homecoming. This year's parade was bigger and better than ever. The exquisite beauty floats, funnier than ever humor floats, jaloopies that banged all over the place, more clowns than you could shake a stick at, and high school bands everywhere. The Bearcats really clawed the Bears with 7,500 fans looking on. And the weather that Saturday, just as perfect as the parade and game . . . Glad no one was hurt when the Teke float went up in flames, they really had a "hot" entry . . .

That Lenox band—they really had it . . . Lyle Martin and Francis Williams did the job up brown as emcees at the Variety Show . . . It would be interesting to know just how many hours of work went into Homecoming this year . . . it would be a figure only the physics class could handle.

Colds . . . they seem to be popular on the campus now; at least almost every guy and gal seems to have one . . . A little virus can go a long way.

Attention, students . . . there are big game hunters on campus . . . the story goes that Bob Paxton and Doyle Hendrickson went deer hunting recently . . . with bows and arrows (get that) . . . Returning from the hunt empty handed did not seem to discourage these hunters though.

Students Show Spirit

When young students on their own initiative, plan and create something beautiful, they deserve a pat on the back.

The quality and quantity of the workmanship portrayed in the Homecoming festivities exemplify the enthusiasm, spirit, and talent of the students on this campus.

The costume and performance of each clown, the ability of obtaining and decorating the numerous out-dated jaloopies, the talent displayed in the themes and workmanship of the humorous floats, the mechanical devices used in the house decorations, and the magnificent array of beautiful floats all helped to show the desire of each student to make the 54 Homecoming successful.

Each float was a representation of artistic ability and design, endless hours of labor, but above all, the cooperation of many persons. The beauty and the themes of the floats might adequately be compared with those expected to be found in much larger parades.

As long as the students and faculty of this college display such talent, the desire to work endlessly without thoughts of personal reward, other than knowing the job is well done, and the ability to work together in a fashion such as this, the spirit and harmony of this campus is definitely accelerating.

Faculty Notes

The Northwest Missouri District Teachers Association is sponsoring Everett W. Brown, Director of Field Services, as a candidate for the first vice-presidency of the Missouri State Teachers Association at a meeting to be held in Kansas City, November 3, 4, and 5. There will be between ten and twelve thousand in attendance at this meeting.

Mr. Brown is now second vice-president of the Association. The House of Delegates will meet Wednesday, November 3, to elect officers. There are approximately one thousand members in the House of Delegates. There is one delegate for each twenty-five members of the Teachers Association. The delegates from the College are President J. W. Jones, Miss Neva Ross, and Miss Mary Keith.

The candidate receiving the office of vice-president will serve as president in 1956.

Mr. Donald Richmond, formerly superintendent of schools at Fillmore, started teaching in the business department at the College during the 1954 summer session. He is taking the place of Mr. Clifford Kensing, who is on leave of absence.

Mr. Richmond was graduated from the College in 1949, received his master's degree in commerce education at Kansas City University, and did additional post graduate work at the University of Kansas.

Miss Chloe Millikan, president of Missouri State Division of A.A.U.W., visited A.A.U.W. branches in Carthage and Springfield, October 28 and 29. Miss Millikan spent October 30 in Joplin at a meeting with the over-all convention committee for planning the Biennial Missouri State Convention which will be held in Joplin, April 29 and 30.

The week of November 6-12, Miss Millikan will visit some 10 or 12 branches in the southeast section of the state.

Mrs. Marjorie Person, a graduate of the College, is now a member of the business department faculty. Mrs. Person is teaching commerce in the place of Mr. Dale Blackwell, who is now on leave of absence.

Mrs. Person taught commerce in the Mound City High School before coming to Maryville. During the past summer, she studied at Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana.

Dr. Leon F. Miller will moderate a panel discussion of Albany parents in connection with American Education Week observance on November 9.

Dr. Charles E. Koerble, the new director of counseling and guidance, is originally from Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He did his undergraduate study at Lawrence College, Appleton, Wisconsin, and received his M. A. and Ph. D. at the University of Wisconsin, Madison.

Dr. Koerble taught at a vocational high school in Cudahy, Wisconsin, before coming to Maryville. He is married and has an eight-month old son, named Brian.

Dr. Fred Keller, a former professor of education here, recently returned from a trip with his wife and son to the Rocky Mountains and other points of interest. He made a night stop at the Stephenson Hotel in Maryville and called a few former friends and faculty companions here.

He is now a professor in the education department at Oklahoma University.

The Alumni

A $12,000 research grant has been awarded to Dr. Harriet Harvey, University of Oklahoma.

This grant covers a period of two years and is from the Public Health Service, National Institute of Health, Bethesda, Md. Dr. Harvey's research is a comparative study of vertebrate submaxillary glands.

Funds will be used for supplies, care of animals, animal food and equipment, and for the salaries of two graduate students and one undergraduate.

A native of Tarkio, Dr. Harvey received her B. S. degree in 1943 at Northwest Missouri State College and her Ph. D. in zoology in 1951 at the University of Chicago.

Before going to Oklahoma University in 1951 Dr. Harvey taught at the public schools of Maryville.

There were approximately 700 here for the gala week-end. The persons who were graduate in earlier years were Ernest F. Scott of Maryville, 1938, and Mrs. John E. Rush of Maryville, 1910.

Other alumni returning from distances included Jo Magnuson, Northfield, Minn., 1953; Charles Oellerman, St. Louis, 1952; James I. Nally, Cheyenne, Wyo., 1950; Mary Garrett Dieterich, Missoula, Mont., 1948; Jack Dieterich, Missoula, Mont., 1944-45; Marian Garrison, Tulsa, Oklahoma; Dwayne "Casey" Cox, Camp Hale, Colo.; Paul Basford, Denver, Colo.; Mrs. Ivan Nally, Cheyenne, Wyo., 1950.

A letter was recently received from Mrs. Nellie Lowery Rutledge of Norman, Oklahoma, where Mr. Rutledge is district manager for the World Book Encyclopedia.

Their younger daughter, Shirley Ann, is a freshman at Oklahoma University, and Harriett Nell was graduated last June from the University.

Miss Yvonne Yeater, formerly of Albany, was recently elected vice-president of the Kansas Deans of Women. Miss Yeater was graduated from the College in 1946, receiving a B. S. degree in education.

Miss Yeater is now director of Northwest Hall, Kansas State College, Manhattan, Kansas.

Miss Bonnie Magill, of the physical education department, recently received a card from Miss Jo Ann Noble, who is an International Farm Youth Exchange delegate in Scotland. She has been there almost four months. Miss Noble attended summer school here in 1953 and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Noble of Agency.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Cross of Grinnell, Iowa, are the parents of a daughter, Teresa Lee, born July 22, 1954. Mr. Cross attended summer school here in 1950.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Broich, Jr., of Memphis, Tennessee, are the parents of a son, Francis Bernard Broich, III, born September 11, 1954.

A daughter was born June 30, 1954, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Christensen of Sibley, Iowa. She has been named Catherine Ann. Both Mr. and Mrs. Christensen graduated with the class of 1950. Mrs. Christensen is the former Margaret Berry.

Mr. Lon Wilson, Dean of Men, recently received a letter from Private Harold Gray, Harold, who was graduated from the College in 1954, is now in the Army Field Wire School, Camp Chaffee, Arkansas.

THE STROLIER

Sharon Olson, the girl who molded the clay figure of a "napkin stuffer" after Homecoming, had the idea. The statue is a "napkin stuffer" melting into his shoes . . . good representation of how we all feel.

The "shake, rattle, and roll" at the last few games isn't your favorite hit record, but the loyal college cheering section keeping up on the times. Sounds great, keep up the spirit.

Hurrying out the front door of the Ad building, THE STROLIER had to stop a moment to look at the breath-taking beauty of the campus. The trees with their many hues were simply astounding. Many people think they have to travel to see outstanding sights and beauty. We needn't travel. Just look around you, students, and notice the beauty of your own campus.

It seems as though several conversations have been interrupted lately by long-distance calls coming into R. H. Don't worry any longer fellas! A new phone especially for long distance calls has been installed in the dorm.

A. C. E. ALUMNI

Some sixty active and alumni members of the Association for Childhood Education enjoyed a Homecoming luncheon at the Presbyterian Church, October 23. Decorations were arranged by members of the alumni group, and carried out the fall color scheme.

Miss Janet McClard, social chairman, acted as toastmistress. Miss Janet Mills, president, welcomed the alumni and presented the officers of the campus group.

A response from the alumnae was given by Charlotte Meyer Turner of St. Joseph. Miss Neva Ross, past state president of A. C. E., told of the National meeting which will be held in Kansas City, April 14-15.

Miss Chloe Millikan, sponsor of the A. C. E. group throughout its 27 years of existence on the campus, spoke of change as it has affected the life of the organization and the challenge which changed conditions for children today present.

Two charter members of the Maryville Branch of A. C. E. were presented. They were Mrs. Pauline Andrews Goodson, Grant City, and Mrs. Martha Wyman Martin, Mound City.

THREE STUDENTS GO TO OFF-CAMPUS CENTERS

The home economics department has students majoring in home economics doing student teaching in selected off-campus centers. Pat Baker and Jeanie Mulvania have been assigned to Central High School in St. Joseph during October 25 to November 19. Mrs. Frances Lemmon is the cooperating teacher. Arline Rinehart is student teaching under the direction of Miss Beulah Campbell, cooperating teacher, at Savannah High School.

THE COLLEGE OATH

"We will never bring disgrace to this, our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will revere and obey the College laws and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

Queen Pat

The election of Pat Boydston as queen of the 1954 Homecoming climaxed an extensive campaign on the part of all the candidates. The election this year drew much interest among the student body. Approximately 85 per cent of the students went to the polls on election day.

Pat was crowned queen of the Homecoming on the first night of the Variety Show by Frank Bayless, president of the student body. Pat, a sophomore from Sharpsburg, Iowa, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Boydston. She is an elementary education major, a member of Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority and the Intermediate Club.

Pat was escorted to the scene of the coronation by her campaign manager, Lester Wooten. The other candidates were each escorted by their campaign managers. Candidates and managers were as follows: Pat Adams, managed by Jerry Sprong; Pat Wood, managed by Jack Cole; Marcia Woodcock, by Homer McCool; Louise Novinger, by Harold Dinsmore; and Dixie Moore, by Bob Hunt.

A. C. E.

The last meeting of A. C. E. was strictly a work night devoted to Homecoming. The house decorations with the theme "We'll Run 'em Ragged" and the float "Tumbling To Victory" were both completed. The float won third place and will be long remembered.

Congrats go to Janet McClard on her able chairmanship of the Homecoming luncheon. There was a large attendance of both students and alumni. Miss Millikan spoke on "A Challenge to A. C. E. in Missouri!" and was well received.

Now that Homecoming is over, business is at hand.

Pi Omega Pi

The regular Pi Omega Pi meeting was held October 18 in the Lakeview Room of the Union. Pledge initiation was held before the regular business meeting. Pledges are Mark Burns, Dirk Wilbur, Nancy Kariger, Colleen Beggs, Aleta Butler, Frank Davis, John Patton, and Jim Hamilton.

Dirk Wilbur has been elected a delegate to go to the national convention in Chicago in December. Evelyn Finter was chosen as alternate.

Sigma Sigmas

The Tri Sigmas have been so busy working on Homecoming that there hasn't been much time to send the news to press. At the October 26 meeting, the girls had some very good reasons to be happy. First of all, the plaques received for first place skit and third place house decoration were on display in the chapter room. The other good news was that Marty Newman is pinned to Bob Smith. Of course, Tri Sigmas were still thrilled about Pat Boydston being homecoming queen!

The pledges have chosen their officers. They are Nancy Snidow, Kansas City, president; Nancy Jamison, Burlington Junction, vice-president; Virginia Cox, Lenox, Iowa, sec.-treas.; and Lois Ramsey, Jamesport, reporter. The pledges have been meeting with Marty Newman every Tuesday night. They also participated actively in all of the Homecoming activities.

Mrs. J. Hyde Crawford, a national officer of the Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority, of Orlando, Florida, and the Alpha Epsilon officers of the sorority discuss plans which will aid the chapter in fulfilling its program of scholarship, service, and personality.

S. C. A.

A Student Christian Association meeting, held October 20 in the Chapel, was opened by singing led by John Fred Whitford. After a short business meeting, the initiation of the new members of the SCA was held. They are George Richard Green, Karen Zack, Helen Mulvania, and Miriam Gose.

Following the initiation service, a brief devotional was given by Herbert Anderson. Membership cards were given to the SCAers at this meeting.

Alpha Sigmas

Pledge initiation is over and activities are being addressed by their last names. The next big thing pledges have to look forward to is Hell Week.

The Founders' Day banquet given October 23 was a success. Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones, Mrs. Albert Kuchs, and Mrs. Charles Bell were among the distinguished guests. Mrs. Jesse Jutten, former physical education instructor and Alpha Sigma sponsor on this campus, returned from Warrensburg State for the reunion.

Among other out-of-town alumni present were Gwenda Barnes, Jane Heett, Mary Frances Bird, Marlene Hughes, Irene Cloos, Phyllis Reigel, Barbara Baker, Jane Costello, Barbara Martin, Joanne Hagan, Nadine Pauman, Joyce Bailly, Jean Corhen, Barbara Staley, Beverly Rizzo, Dorothy Vest, Joanne Hanson, Vernelle Stallin, Alice Arther, Jean Lorimer, and Katy Jones.

Alpha Phi Omega

The Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity has pledged the following members: Jerry Bryant, Jack Cole, Keith Collier, Elvin Long, Kenneth Olney, Larry Parman, and Ric Quinn.

A. P. O. entered into the spirit of Homecoming with three items. A house decoration was erected which took second place; an ancient stagecoach entered in the humorous float division received honorable mention; and a skit entitled "One Bear" was presented at the Variety Show.

Delta Sigmas

Napkins, wire, roses, lattice everywhere—not to mention broken bird baths—and not a place to sit. This scramble of debris faced the pledges and actives Tuesday night. But not for long—all pitched in and believe it or not, in the space of a few hours the resemblance of the chapter room once more took shape. All in time to enjoy refreshments and the initiation of some new dance steps too.

Memories, head aches, a discussion on the way to borrow anything from coffee to semitrucks, comparison of broken finger nails, and the all in all fun and experience of Homecoming were the basis of the story swappings during the social hour.

Pledge officers elected for the semester are Rosalie Hamilton, president; Verla Mosman, vice-president; Marge Thomson, secretary-treasurer; Sandra Craven, reporter.

Social functions of the pledges will be planned by Evelyn Matthews, Lavone Van Meter, and Sue Taylor. These girls are planning a party for sorority members and their dates in the near future.

Cats Lose Again In Fourth Quarter

The fourth quarter jinx that has hampered Maryville football fortunes throughout the season showed up once again at Warrensburg last Saturday as the Mules tallied twice in the final stanza to post a 12-6 decision over the locals in an MIAA encounter.

In the first period after the Mules had reeled off two straight first downs, Ono Monachino, recovered a fumble on the 30 and Maryville had their first scoring chance.

The 'Cats moved all the way to the Mule 11 before Red Walker dropped a pass in the end-zone to lose the ball on downs.

Early in the second quarter the 'Cats struck again only to have the Mules stop Walker on a fourth down play from the four-yard line, inches away from a touchdown.

Another threat was stopped on the Mule four just before the half ended when Dean George intercepted a Walker pass.

The Bearcats got their only tally and the game's first score in the middle stages of the third quarter when a Walker-to-Monachino 12-yard pay-off pass ended a 55 yard drive. The conversion was good but the locals were off-side and Walker had his second attempt blocked.

The Mules scored the equalizer right after the kick-off, marching from their own 38 to get the tally.

A six-inch quarterback sneak by Norman Brooks at the start of the fourth quarter tied the game. The extra point attempt was blocked by Bill Baldwin and Mickey Mallen.

Mules Score Winning TD

A 48-yard drive in the waning minutes of the contest following a pass interception gave the Mules their winning tally.

Brooks sneaked over for the final tally once again from the six inch line. The conversion attempt was wide of the uprights.

Sports Program Carries Interests For All Students

"A sound mind in a sound body," as stated by John Locke during the nineteenth century is a principle that holds as much truth today as when stated.

For this reason, the administrators and directors of this college feel the need of providing a program of recreation which will include the interests of almost any student.

Heading the list, of course, are Varsity sports which give those with outstanding abilities the opportunity to participate in interscholastic sports.

Intramurals, under the leadership of Dr. H. D. Peterson, Roger Cook, Larry Jones, Dick Phillips, Daryl Flint, and George Haskey provide opportunities for men students to participate in touch football, tennis, basketball, individual sports, soft ball, and golf.

W. A. A. offers competition in the individual sports to any woman student on this campus.

The Co-recreational Committee plans activities which give both boys and girls the opportunity to compete. Wednesday nights from 8 to 10 have been selected for this program and will not only provide the opportunity to participate in a physical activity, but will also provide the means of entertaining a Wednesday night date on a minimum budget.

The pool will be open for swimming on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, and the gymnasium and pool both will be open on Saturday afternoon.

Bearcats to Play Cape on Saturday

Cape Girardeau, one of the best teams in the conference, will be host to the Bearcats Saturday in the last game of the season.

"Cape has by far the fastest back field in the conference and it was my opinion Cape had the best team," stated Coach Milner; "however, Cape was defeated by Kirksville."

"As for our team, I'm not alibiing, but the injuries are still cropping up. Mark Burns, whom I consider one of the best line in the state, was
